

Illinois International encompasses 12 units, centers, and programs dedicated to supporting campus internationalization through administrative, academic, and programmatic services and initiatives. In addition to those units that report to the Vice Provost for International Affairs & Global Strategies, there are a number of globally-focused units across campus with whom we collaborate.

