

Illinois for Illinois (I4I) Scholarship Categories

Fall 2018 Award Cycle

General Merit Category

All applications are automatically considered for an award in this category.

Need-based Category

The Scholarship Committee uses FAFSA information and a financial contributions statement to determine financial need. To be considered for an award in this category, you must fill out additional information on the application.

Underrepresented Category

Students who consider themselves at least one of the following can be considered for an award in the underrepresented category:

- 1) First Generation College Student (Neither parent graduated from a four-year institution with a degree)
- 2) Traditionally underrepresented minority (Latinx, Black, Native American, or Pacific Islander)
- 3) Students with a physical or sensory disability registered with DRES on campus

Nontraditional Destination Consideration

Students going on studying abroad programs to nontraditional locations receive some special consideration in the awarding process. Nontraditional study abroad destinations include Latin America and the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, and Eastern/Central Europe. Destinations in Western Europe, Australia, and New Zealand are not eligible for special consideration.

Award Amounts

Short-term (Winter Break & Spring Break)	$1000 - $1500
Semester (Spring 2018)	$2000-$3000
Calendar Year (2018)	$4000-$6000