

Illinois International Programs (IIP Scholarships)

Fall 2017 Award Cycle

For All Program Terms

(Winter Break, Spring Semester, Spring Break, or Calendar Year)

Charles Wert India-Illinois Scholarship

The Charles Wert India-Illinois Scholarship Fund provides financial support to Illinois students for study abroad in India and Indian students wishing to study at Illinois. The program reflects the donor's strong interest in fostering interactions between Illinois and institutions in India.

Eligibility	Country or Region	Amount
Undergraduate or Graduate UIUC students wishing to study in India (preference for study at an Indian Institute of Technology school) Indian students (preference for students from an Indian Institute of Technology school) wishing to study at UIUC	India  UIUC Campus for Students from India	$1,000 to $4,000

Lemann Scholarship for Brazilian Studies

This scholarship was established by the Lemann Institute for Brazilian Studies with the help of a gift from Brazilian financier and entrepreneur Jorge Paulo Lemann. The Lemann Scholarship will be awarded each semester to Illinois undergraduates with intermediate and advanced Portuguese language skills who are studying abroad in Brazil.

Eligibility	Country or Region	Amount
Undergraduate Only  must have intermediate or higher level of Portuguese  must attend at least one course taught in Portuguese or enroll in at least one Portuguese language course while abroad	Brazil	$1,500

Joan Solaun Study Abroad Scholarship

Joan Solaun served as director of the Illinois Study Abroad Office for 23 years. During her tenure, Joan helped transform study abroad at Illinois from a small program that served only a few hundred students a year to one of the largest programs in the country. Today, thanks to Joan's leadership, the Urbana campus sends more than 2,000 students to study in over sixty countries. The Joan Solaun Honorary Study Abroad Scholarship honors Joan's many contributions to study abroad at Illinois and, at the same time, helps make studying abroad more affordable for deserving Illinois students.

Eligibility	Country or Region	Amount
Undergraduate Only US Citizen or Permanent Resident academic merit and financial need	All	$1,000

Andrea Van Proyen Memorial Scholarship

The Andrea Van Proyen Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of Andrea Van Proyen by her family. Throughout her life Andrea's dream was to go to Paris, France, but unfortunately her dream was never realized. Through the Andrea Van Proyen Memorial Scholarship, Illinois students will be given the opportunity to study in Paris, France.

Eligibility	Country or Region	Amount
Undergraduate or Graduate  financial need considered	Paris, France	$1,000

Carlene & Andy Ziegler Study Abroad Scholarship

The Carlene and Andy Ziegler Study Abroad Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2007 to assist academically strong students with financial need in participating in Illinois study abroad programs. Carlene studied abroad in France as an undergraduate, and hoped to make that opportunity available for others.

Eligibility	Country or Region	Amount
Undergraduate Only  academic merit and financial need considered	All	$3,000

For Specific Program Terms

Melissa Dorsey Memorial Study Abroad Scholarship

Melissa was a 2004 graduate of the University of Illinois. During her junior year, she studied abroad for a semester in Paris. Melissa went on to earn a Juris Doctorate in 2007 and later worked as a Foreign Service Officer assigned as Consular Officer at the U.S. Embassy in Tel Aviv, Israel. Melissa loved traveling, learning languages and experiencing different cultures. This scholarship was established in her memory by her family. Through this scholarship, other students will have the opportunity to have the experience of living abroad.

Eligibility	Country or Region	Amount
Undergraduate Only  for Semester or Academic/Calendar Year Programs	All	$1,000

Chad Lobdell Memorial Study Abroad Award

The Lobdell family of Normal, Illinois, established the Chad Lobdell Memorial Scholarship in loving memory of their late son Chad, who spent his spring 1991 semester at the University of Lancaster. The purpose of the award is to give students wishing to study in Great Britain the chance to benefit from the experience of studying abroad, an experience which had a profound influence upon Chad and those who knew him.

Eligibility	Country or Region	Amount
Undergraduate or Graduate  for Semester or Academic Year Programs  academic merit and financial need	Great Britain (preference for students studying at University of Lancaster)	$1,500